Introducing our new Engagement Assistants

We're excited to announce that we have two new Higher Education Engagement Assistants (EAs) joining our team, Georgina and Savannah can't wait to start delivering!

About Georgina

- Studied Psychology at University of Lincoln
- Loves Formula One and Ice Hockey
- Student ambassador at university-working open days, leading campus tours and talking to prospective students

"I'd like to continue getting involved with opportunities which allow me to enthusiastically engage, encourage and help young people to understand their options in life."

About Savannah

- Studied Business Management with Marketing at Edinburgh Napier University
- Loves cooking, travelling and upcycling old furniture
- Taught English in Korea after completing a Cambridge English teaching course

"I think success is contributing to a change that I care about personally. I hope I can make a difference to people's lives while growing personally alongside that."

We have also recruited two new Regional Activities Coordinators who we look forward to introducing soon. For now, please continue to contact Joe Abram: J.Abram@shu.ac.uk

Supporting students with additional barriers navigating their route to higher education

Registration for Hepp's virtual CPD conference is now open!

This conference will provide up to date information on the support available to students who face additional barriers to progressing to higher education; disabled learners, care experienced students, young carers and mature students.

This event is open to, teachers, advisers, influencers, parents and carers.
